Music Memories Cards

Host guide | A conversation, not a test

Set out a few cards

Choose three to five questions. Cut along the borders if useful, or keep each sheet whole. Everyone may answer, listen, or pass.

Begin gently

Begin by choosing music for an imaginary cafe. This gives the group a shared setting without putting anyone on the spot about a favorite song. If people mention a real recording, discuss it without reproducing lyrics. Singing, tapping, and naming a tune should remain optional.

Make room for every voice

Read one question, then pause. Accept short replies. Ask before inviting more detail. Let each person choose whether to share a memory or invent an answer.

Try this extension

Create a word-only program for a tiny concert: an opening mood, one instrument to feature, and a gentle ending. A pair can choose contrasting music for a rainy afternoon and a lively gathering. The aim is thoughtful listening and preference sharing, not agreement about the best decade or performer.
